Dear Colleague

NSI QUALITY SCHEDULE SSQS 101 (ISSUE 6)

I am writing to inform you that NSI Quality Schedule SSQS 101 (Issue 6) for the application of BS EN ISO 9001: 2008 can be downloaded from the approved companies' area of the NSI website.

To find SSQS 101 on the NSI website (www.nsi.org.uk) you need to be able to "sign in" to the approved companies' area using your username and password.

If you do not have a username and password, you can REGISTER online. Clicking on "Approved Company Login" and then clicking on "Register" takes you to the Registration Request Form.

If you have any problems registering to use the approved companies' area of the NSI website, please contact Carole Whitfield in our IT Department. She can be contacted on 01628 637512 or at carole.whitfield@nsi.org.uk

To find SSQS 101 go to www.nsi.org.uk and click on "Approved Company Login" (which is at the right hand side of the main menu bar). Then "sign in" to the approved companies' area using your username and password, which takes you to the next page. Click on "Click here to get to Gold area", which takes you to the next page. Then click on "NACOSS Gold" to choose a scheme. You are now at the NACOSS Gold page and you should be able to find SSQS 101 by looking towards the bottom of the right hand side of the page. Finally, click on "click here" to download a copy of SSQS 101.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.

Yours sincerely
