Dear Colleague,

BS 7858:2012 IDENTITY DOCUMENT REQUIREMENTS (Section 4.4c Note 3)

Due to recent changes to the SIA website regarding their Identity Document requirements, a discrepancy has occurred between these requirements and those outlined in the DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) website.

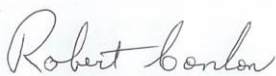

BS 7858:2012 is being reviewed at present and the upcoming proposed draft changes include a reference to the DBS website for Acceptable Identity Documents.

In an effort to reference the correct documents, NSI will accept your processing of Identity Documents in line with the requirements on the DBS website as follows:

<https://www.gov.uk/guidance/documents-the-applicant-must-provide>

This amendment applies only to the process of screening to BS 7858, and the requirements on the SIA website should be adhered to for all licensing applications.

Yours sincerely,

Robert Conlon
