Dear Colleague,

UPDATE TO NSI REGULATIONS

We would like to draw your attention to the recently updated NSI Regulations (now Issue 13). Updates have been made to Section 3.6.2; there is a new item j) relating to UK government sanctions.

The new NSI Regulations have been attached to this letter for your convenience but please ensure you have access to them in the Approved Company area of the NSI website. Once logged in, select the 'Documents' tab and your medal colour and you will find a list of schemes on the right-hand side. Select your scheme from the list to find the relevant documentation.

The NSI Regulations form an important part of the requirements for both applications for approval and continuing approval. If you have any questions about the changes, please do not hesitate to contact me using the details below.

Yours sincerely

Rhys Mitchell
Certification Services Manager and Quality Manager
