Dear Colleague,

NSI PRICING FOR 2024/25

NSI's client fee rates and other charges are reviewed annually and, where appropriate, changes are made from 1st April each year. Whilst some schemes will see a slight uplift, certificate costs remain unchanged at 2023 levels. Our day rates continue to be competitive and lower than other certification bodies within our sectors, ensuring you receive excellent value.

NSI is committed to containing costs wherever possible whilst investing in core audit programme delivery. Upholding the high quality and depth of our audits, keeping our approved companies well informed, and promoting NSI certification within the industry and amongst buyers and specifier communities are all areas of ongoing focus.

Thank you for maintaining your approval with NSI.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Fogelman
CEO
